

News You Can Use UTA Libraries

September 1999

<<http://www.uta.edu/library>>

The UTA Libraries have several new databases this fall; this is a partial list. Many of them are "UTA IP Only," meaning they may be reached by computers on the UTA campus or by those users who set up an NT account through the Academic Computing Services. Reach all of the databases via <<http://www.uta.edu/library/mavinfo/mavinfo.html>>.

From UTA Library Workstations Only
College Source Online features over 9,600 College Catalogs in complete cover-to-cover, original page format representing 2-year, 4-year, graduate and professional schools.

Reference USA is a directory of 10.5 million businesses. Researchers can search by company name, geographic area, or business type. Web version of American Business Disc.

From UTA IP Only
DISCovering Multicultural America offers information on the culture, history, and current status of America's largest ethnic groups: African Americans, Asian Americans, Hispanic Americans, and Native North Americans.

Electric Library (Infonautics, Inc.) contains over 5 million full-text documents in all subject areas. Covers six separate media types.

Grove Dictionary of Art is a comprehensive art reference work covering all forms of the visual arts: painting, sculpture, architecture, graphic and decorative arts, and photography, from prehistory to the 1990s. Global coverage.

IEEE/IE Electronic Library 1988-present. Journals, transactions, and magazines; conference and colloquia proceedings and IEEE standards.

Nursing Collection (1995-present) contains the full text of 15 leading journals in both general and specialized nursing fields. Hypertext links to the CINAHL bibliographic database.

ScienceDirect is a Web database for scientific research that contains the full text of more than 1,000 Elsevier Science journals in the life, physical, medical, technical, and social sciences available through the Internet. ScienceDirect also contains abstracts from the core journals in the major scientific disciplines.

Electronic Reserves Pilot Project

The UTA Libraries are initiating a pilot project to test placing reserve materials on the web. Faculties using all branches of UTA libraries are encouraged to submit works of their own authorship such as class notes, homework assignments, exams, solutions, or syllabi. The library is eager to test submissions in a variety of forms including computer diskettes, materials from other web sites, photographs, drawings, etc. Please note that materials for the pilot project do not necessarily need to be in current use during the fall 1999 session. For more information, please contact Sarah Jones (272-3000 ext. 5324), Delores Morgan (272-3000 ext. 4991), or Michele Wilson (272-3000 ext. 4516).

Interlibrary Loan After-hours Pickup
UTA library patrons are not limited by the open hours of the Inter-Library Loan Office when picking up ordered materials. Patrons visiting Central Library after Inter-Library closing hours can go to the first floor circulation counter to pickup processed orders.

To contribute a news item contact editor Maggie Dwyer, x5366, fax 5797, or email
